Jane Anweiler	Regina, Equatorial Guinea	2014-06-17	This is a beautiful old building and if not repaired and used as a school (which I still hope will happen) it could be repurposed and remain an asset to our city and community. I really hope that you will designate it as a Municipal Heritage building. You have my strong support to do so.
Patricia Elliott	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	I want to live in a city that respects our built environment, and has the courage to stand up for it. I want my child to attend a school system that understands true sustainability.
Shelton Livingstone	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	Keeping Regina's cultural background is the most important priority we should have right now. Tearing down such a beautiful building will not help the spirit of many people who love every part of it.
Frank Korvemaker	Regina, Sask., Canada	2014-06-17	Schools have played an important role in the education of past generations, but also in the appreciation of the varied architecture of Regina., It is important to preserve and reuse these highly visible components of our city.
Florence Stratton	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	Historic buildings are of immense value to a neighbourhood and city. Moose Jaw has restored and renovated its historic schools. Connaught too can be successfully refurbished to provide an inspirational learning environment for many more generations of Regina children.
Maureen Eckstein	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	Our heritage is a very important part of life so why would we destroy it!
Judith McLennan	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	It is part of our heritage and community. Connaught will be replaced by a MEGA school
Dirck de Lint	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	Our city has a terrible habit of forgetting its past, and buildings representative of that past are few. That this particular building is also functional and located in a vibrant community makes it important to save it rather than replace it with some modern construction built to support an educational method which is starting to look counterproductive.
Judith McKenzie	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	Three generations of my family went to Connaught School - my daughter, two of my granddaughters, my grandson and now my great granddaughter
jennifer krall	regina, Canada	2014-06-17	remembering and honouring our history is an important part of who we are
Marni Aubichon	regina, Canada	2014-06-17	my granddaughter attends this school and relocating to another area for 3 years makes no sense - fix the current building - we have let way too many of our old building be torn down in this city
Jillian McLennan	North Vancouver, Canada	2014-06-17	Connaught is a central part of the Cathedral Community identity as well as the history of Regina.
Robin Adeney	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	Buildings remind us of our identity, create a sense of place and community. Connaught School should be preserved.
Sylvie Roy	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	I believe we should keep old buildings as part of our heritage. There are so few old buildings in Regina that we should work at keeping the ones we have.
Celia Overend	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	I rarely sign petitions; however, as an avid Regina lover, I am surprised when I see key buildings disappear. They act as a significant visual diary for our city, and as a foundation for strong communities. There are fewer and fewer historical buildings in our city, so we must act sooner rather than later in order to preserve our visual and structural past.

Lauren Fournier	Toronto, Canada	2014-06-17	I was born and raised in Regina, SK and am currently living out of province for school. Connaught Community School is one of the few remaining architectural treasures of pre-modern Regina, and I very much hope that it is warranted Heritage Designation and thus protected. Thank you!
Kathleen McLeod	Edmonton AB, Canada	2014-06-17	A community resource that has served education well with no need to destroy a heritage building.
Christine Heenan	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	As a resident of the cathedral area I feel that Connaught is an essential part of the neighborhood.
Brenda Niskala	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	Connaught School, paired with the library, is the anchor for our neighbourhood. I always knew my children were safe when they were near Connaught. They are the kind of stately buildings that make this part of the city special.
Genevieve Peris	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	Because it's my school to start. Even if they close it, it's a beautiful building and should be a heritage building. I bet they don't even plan on building a new school! They want to use the land for the new stadium probably! Or maybe even those new condos... My point being, I might be younger, but I still have an opinion, and frankly so do many more, and they are all saying, make it a heritage building. That's why it's important to me.
Colleen Peris	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	Because the greed of a handful of people should not supersede the will of an entire community. Tearing down Connaught School is not only wrong, it is unconscionable. There are so many other viable alternatives to destroying this historic landmark, it is only a matter of will and it can be done.
Suzanne Smart	Regina, Canada	2014-06-17	This historic building can never be replaced. We need to respect our cultural heritage and the environment by keeping unnecessary waste out of the landfill.
Catherine Gibson	Regina, Canada	2014-06-18	Without Heritage, we are nothing
June Botkin	Regina, Canada	2014-06-18	This is the oldest school left in the city. The designation and council support helps meet the values expressed and passed by city council in the new community plan. It's time the city walked their talk!
Jacqueline Campbell	Regina, Canada	2014-06-18	Heritage
Kathleen Irwin	Regina, Canada	2014-06-18	It is an historic landmark worthy of saving. The option of a new building will not conform to the architectural integrity of the neighbourhood.
Ingrid Alesich	Regina, Canada	2014-06-18	It is important to keep the main structure of the school while upgrading the internal infrastructure and making it energy efficient, light and bright, accessible and making the grounds a place of beauty and fun for the children and teachers.
Sherie Crepeele	Brandon, Canada	2014-06-18	To keep the heart of the community alive and cared for.
Kathryn Hamre	Regina, Canada	2014-06-18	This building has historical significance for the City of Regina and more should be done to ensure its preservation.
Madeleine Black	Regina, Canada	2014-06-18	I attended Connaught from kindergarten to grade eight in the French immersion program. I also lived and worked in the Cathedral area for many years afterwards and believe that heritage buildings help to create a sense of place among people, allowing the community to be a vibrant and positive place to live. Please don't destroy a pillar in our sense of belonging, it's something that can take generations to create.
Rene Dumont	Regina, Canada	2014-06-18	This is important because I feel that this is the most significant heritage building in this community!
Leslie Charlton	Regina, Canada	2014-06-18	History is important for a city to be great.
arnold mckenzie	Regina, Canada	2014-06-19	Both my daughters attended this school and my wife Sandi helped initiate the school lunch program.

Deborah Karpa	Regina, Canada	2014-06-19	So our city has some character with old buildings maintained and restored. The Cathedral is noted for its old character buildings, why would we tear it down? Building new always costs more than fixing old?
Taylo Obariany	Regina, Canada	2014-06-19	Grew up in cathedral and it would be heart breaking to lose such an important piece of heritage in the community.
Sarah Wells	regina,, Canada	2014-06-19	The city needs to preserve tradition and heritage.
Mirtha Rivera	Regina, Canada	2014-06-19	Because our kids need their school to stay where it is and they don't need to be going somewhere else.
Anna Baker	Regina, Canada	2014-06-19	Because municipal governments and school divisions should work together to serve their communities.
Tiffany McHugh	Regina, Canada	2014-06-19	It is the least wasteful, least disruptive option. The school means a lot to many people.
Debbie Bradford	Regina, Canada	2014-06-19	My son is a Connaught student and this is our community! We take pride in our community!
Marcel Hunt	Regina, Canada	2014-06-19	Heratige, people... c'mon!
Greg Patterson	Thunder Bay, Canada	2014-06-19	How is it not?
Marianna Brown	Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada	2014-06-19	This building is recognized as one of the ten such buildings in all of Canada
Christian Pineda	Regina, Canada	2014-06-19	Heritage and culture awareness.
Alexandre Daubisse	Regina, Canada	2014-06-19	Heritage buildings are part of our cityscape and help us know our past to better understand and define our present and prepare for our future.
Abigail Frasz	Bethune, Canada	2014-06-19	This is important to me because I was born and raised in the Cathedral area. I attended Connaught from 1996-2005. This building is the heart and soul of the Cathedral area, the place of learning, growth, and community. I got my start there. I learned so much, and became who I am there. There is a sense of pride and family when I drive by that beautiful school and I believe that removing the heart of a Community is a travesty and it has to be stopped. This school is worth a lot more than the land it is on, it needs to be renovated and it needs to stay alive. For the sake of students. Past, present and future.
Abigail Frasz	Bethune, Canada	2014-06-19	This was my elementary school. A beautiful building and a home for many. A place of learning, growth, and community. It is like the heart of Cathedral, as it nurtured it's children for so many years.
ken fox	regina, Canada	2014-06-20	schools matter, kids matter, RSB get yr act together.
ROGER LEE, PROFESSEUR EMERITUS	VANCOUVER, BC, Canada	2014-06-20	THE PAST WILL NOT HAUNT YOU BUT INVIGORATE YOU!!
Edie Marshall	Regina, Canada	2014-06-20	Too many of our beautiful old buildings in Regina have been torn down. Let's save this one!!
Jaimee Richards	Regina, Canada	2014-06-20	Save our school!!
